The Old Post Office EAST ILSLEY, BERKSHIRE, RG20 7LF

The Property

The Old Post Office is a delightful Grade II Listed property believed to have been built in 1860. The accommodation, arranged over 4 floors, is gracious and elegantly proportioned with high ceilings and large sash windows making the rooms very light. The double drawing room with its glazed door and French windows opening onto the terrace has a large open fireplace at one end and a woodburner at the other and is exceptionally attractive. The bedrooms are all well-proportioned, the master bedroom being particularly comfortable and spacious with steps leading to a dressing room and large bathroom. The second floor at present offers bedroom 4 and bedroom 5/study, and a further room where there is huge potential to maximise the space and install bath/shower rooms or to re-arrange the accommodation to suit.

In all about 0.55 acre (0.223 hectare)

Classic and deceptively spacious village house set in charming gardens

The Location

The Old Post Office is situated in the popular downland village of East Ilsley famed for its strong ties with racehorse training. The pretty village has a high proportion of period properties and is surrounded by rolling countryside in an Area of Outstanding Beauty. There is a church, 2 pubs and a primary school in the village with more comprehensive facilities to be found in Newbury, Reading and Oxford. There is a wide selection of both primary and secondary, private and state schools in the area. Communications to London and major road networks are excellent via the A34 and M4, and by rail via Didcot or Newbury (Paddington).

The Garden

The garden is unusually large for a village house and lies to the rear of the property. It is laid mainly to lawn with some mature trees and shrubs and a few mixed and herbaceous borders.

N.B. There is vehicular access on an annual charge to a gravelled area in the rear garden, via a 5 bar gate, giving ample off-street parking if wished.
